The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 16. 1736.

There being now two Mails due from Holland, we ſhall begin this Paper with the moſt material Advices that came Yeſterday by two Mails from Ireland.

From the Dublin Gazette.

Dublin, Nov. 6.

ON Friday the 29th of October, between the Hours of Three and Four in the Afternoon, there was a conſiderable Storm of Wind and Hail, attended with a moſt violent Clap of Thunder and Lightning, and was moſtly from Caſtlecarbury in the County of Kildare, to about one Mile South East. The Lightning penetrated the Houſe of Mrs. Ellin Fayle, a Widow of Konough, broke the Chimney (which was three Story high) to the firſt Floor, all to Pieces, and crack'd it down to the Ground; and carried or drove ſome of the Bricks ſixty Yards from the Houſe; it broke all the Partitions and Doors in the Houſe, moſt of them to Splinters; but the Doors which were faſtened or locked were moſt broke; it broke two Loſts very much, and drove the Glaſs out of every Window in the Houſe; ſome of the Windows were drove ſeven or eight Yards out, but not one of them eſcap'd; it entered the Oven in the Chimney, and went through a Lime and Stone Wall of five Foot thick, and went out under the Foundation of the Houſe, as it did in two other Places. Mrs. Fayle and five of her Children were in different Parts of the Houſe, who were all ſtruck down (but only two of them heard the Noiſe) and continued ſtun'd, ſome of them five, and ſome ten Minutes: None of them received any conſiderable Hurt, only three of them have in their Faces and Hands burn'd in ſmall ſpecks, as if by the Sparks of a hot Iron, and one of their Eyes ſometning weakned; but Mrs. Fayle had the Toe of her Shoe tore acroſs, and a Burn quite through her Toe, as by a ſmall Grain of Shot, which ſurpriſed her very much. Two of her Sons were ſtanding within a Yard of each other, when the Lightning entered the Ground in two Places, within four or five Inches of each of their Right Feet, as if croſswiſe, and ſplit the Earth more than two Foot each Way; where it entered the Ground, it made two Holes, ſuch as if by a Cannon Ball. All the Earthen Ware in the Houſe was broke to Pieces, except ſome in a Cupboard near the Chimney, the Door of which was ſhatter'd to Pieces, and the Earthen Ware in it not ſtirred: On the Chimney Pieces there were ſome Tea Cups and Diſhes, with the Cups turn'd in the Diſhes; the Cups were taken quite away, and are not to be found, ſuppoſed to be broke to Pieces among the Rubbage, and the Diſhes left whole. A great Darkneſs enſued, attended with a ſulphurous Smell, for a Quarter of an Hour. A Dog lying on the Floor was killed. The People that were in the Yard and in the Out-houſes ſaw great Lightning, but no Harm happened to them, only they were very much ſurprized. It broke in the Door of a Neighbour's Houſe about two hundred Yards off, and drove a young Man ſtanding at it into the Houſe with the Door, but he was not hurt.

On Tueſday John Twigge, Eſq; an Ironmonger in Bridge-ſtreet, and one of our late Sheriffs, was elected an Alderman in the room of Humphrey French, Eſq; deceaſed.

The ſame Night a Smith's Houſe in Bolton-ſtreet was burnt down, by a Candle that was ſtuck againſt a Wall, which fell down into a Bed where ſome Children lay. The Parents being abroad, the Neighbours broke open the Door, and preſerved the Children.

The following is taken from the other Papers printed at Dublin.

Dublin, Nov. 9. We hear from Wexford, that on Wednesday the 27th paſt at Night, they had a terrible Storm of Thunder and Lightning, Rain and Wind, which did conſiderable Damage in that Neighbourhood.

From Beerhaven in the County of Cork, we have an Account, that the Maſarine, bound from Virginia with 365 Hogſheads of Tobacco, and ſeveral thouſand Pipe Staves, was caſt away in the late Storm upon that Coaſt: The Captain and two Hands were drown'd, and 14 Men ſav'd themſelves by ſwimming aſhore.

We have an Account from Gallway, that ſeveral Veſſels have been caſt away on their Coaſts; and that the poor Sailors were moſt inhumanly treated by the barbarous Cottagers on the Sea Side. It is to be wiſhed, that ſevere Laws were made in this Kingdom, and in England, to prevent ſuch Practices; for Merchants and poor Sailors, who are ſo uſeful to all trading Nations, ought to meet with all the Encouragement that can be given them by Law.

Laſt Wedneſday being the Anniverſary of the Birth and Landing in England, of our Glorious Deliverer King William III. of Immortal Memory; their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices received the Compliments of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, the Nobility and Gentry upon the happy Occaſion, who made a Proceſſion from the Caſtle, round the Statue of King William on College Green, and afterwards down the Strand, attended by a Regiment of Horſe, and the Battle-Axe Guards. In the Evening the Tragedy of Tamerlane was acted at the Theatre Royal for the Ladies and Gentlemen; and the Night concluded with the greateſt Demonſtrations of Joy.

Thurſday being the Anniverſary of the horrid Gunpowder Plot, the ſame was obſerved here according to Cuſtom: Their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices went in great State to Chriſt Church, where an excellent Sermon, ſuitable to the Occaſion, was preach'd by the Rev. Mr. Godley. In the Evening Mr. Duval gave the Tragedy of Tamerlane for the Entertainment of the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor and Sheriffs, and the Night concluded with all publick Marks of Joy.

The ſame Evening the Conſtable of St. Andrew's Watch on Duty, being a very loyal Man, made a Bonfire before the Effigie on College Green, and ſet Candles all round the Reals, and Candles in Lanthorn's above, where the Horſe ſtands, which made a glorious Show, then paraded his Men, which were Thirty in Number, and he at the Head of them, with an Orange Saſh and Cockade, and a half Pike in his Hand, he drank to the immortal Memory of King William, and then made all his Men do the ſame, then he march'd them in Ranks four Men deep; with their Candles lighted in their Lanthorn's and borne upon the Tops of their Watch Poles, which made a moſt agreeable Sight. The Proceſſion was carried on with Decency and good Order, and cloſed with Huzza's of Joy and Approbation. At his Return, he and his Men drank their Majeſties Healths and all the Royal Family.

Same Day arrived the Yacht from Park Gate, on board which were the Right Honourable the Lord Southwell, the Right Honourable Sir Thomas Pendergaſt, Mr. Jocelyn, the Attorney General, Mr. Bowes, Sollicitor General, and Mr. Hamilton.

Laſt Wedneſday the Honourable Senate in our Univerſity aſſembled, when Robert French, Eſq; made a very elegant Latin Oration from the Chair on the Occaſion, which was anſwered by Samuel Holt, Eſq; The Gentlemen Uſhers who waited on the Conſuls and Senate, were William Uſher and John Parnell.

We hear that the Rev. Mr. Truell, Curate of Wicklow, was married there on Wedneſday laſt to Mrs. Stone, Relict of Richard Stone, Eſq; deceaſed, formerly one of the Doctors in Chancery.

This Week the Right Hon. the Counteſs of Antrim, bought a Piece of ſuperfine Iriſh Linnen, 24 Yards, at 40 s. per Yard, from Mr. Robert Kaine, of Lurgan, in the County of Ardmagh.

N. B. The ſaid Piece of Linen was manufactur'd in Lurgan.

If to ſuch a Pitch this Art has arrived in ſuch a Time, what will it do in another Century? Let 'em have ſuch Counteſſes, ſuch Patroneſſes, how nimbly will the Wheels in ſpinning go? And Shuttle move by Hand, each equal to a Triptolimus, and every Seaſon will produce new Offerings worthy of ſuch Patroneſſes.

Let Cambray ceaſe, and Hamburgh too,
To boaſt of Art, for LURGAN you!
May like Arachne dare to vie,
With any Spinning Deity;
For tho' Asbeſtos ſhe wou'd ſpin,
Thou, LURGAN, woud'ſt the Wager win.

Laſt Friday the Rev. Edward Motley was married to Mrs. Sarah Webb, a very agreeable Lady, with a handſome Fortune.

Saturday laſt James Connor, a Boy about 16 Years of Age, was executed near St. Stephen's Green for a Robbery. The other Perſon who received Sentence of Death with him was reprieved.

Sunday laſt the Hon. Edmond Butler, Brother to the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Mountgarret, embraced the Proteſtant Religion, and read his Recantation from Popery in St. Mary's Church, where an excellent Sermon was preached ſuitable to the Occaſion by the Rev. Dean Croſs.

The Report of the Right Hon. the Lord Mountgarret's going to Germany, is intirely falſe and groundleſs, his Lordſhip deſigning to apply to the Parliament of Great Britain, at their next Meeting, for an Act to enable his Lordſhip to pay all the late Lord's Proteſtant Creditors; to ſettle a Jointure on any Lady his Lordſhip ſhall pleaſe to marry; and to make a Proviſion for his Lordſhip's Brother and Iſſue.

LONDON.

On Sunday laſt Jacob Wright, of Eaſt Sheen in Surry, Eſq; was married to Miſs Norton, one of the Daughters and Coheireſſes of the late ——— Norton, of Wimbleton in the ſaid County, Eſq; a very agreeable young Lady, with a Fortune of 12,000 l.

To-morrow the Duke and the Princeſs Amelia, attended by ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction, will hunt a Hind on Banſtead Downs.

We hear that Mr. Thomas Bentley is appointed Deputy Serjeant Porter to his Majeſty, in the room of Mr. Lovett, deceaſed.

Laſt Sunday the Right Hon. the Earl of Eſſex came to Town from the Seat of the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole in Norfolk, and Yeſterday his Lordſhip ſet out for his Seat in Hertfordſhire.

Laſt Saturday Morning died, after a ſhort Illneſs, at his Houſe at Highgate, Samuel Vane, Eſq; a young Gentleman poſſeſſed of a plentiful Eſtate.

Laſt Sunday Morning between 8 and 9 o'Clock, Mrs. Marſton, of Ruſſel Street, and another Gentlewoman, going in a Chariot to Harrow on the Hill, were attacked between Paddington and Weſtborn Green by two Highwaymen, who robbed them of their Money, &c. to the Value of 6 l. And ſoon after, and near the ſaid Place, two Gentlemen on Horſeback were robbed, as is ſuppoſed, by the ſaid Highwaymen, of a Watch, and about 4 l. in Money.

Next Monday the Jury that were impannelled on the remarkable Cauſe between Philips and Fowler, on the Act to prevent Bribery and Corruption, are to appear at the Court of Common Pleas at Weſtminſter, to have Opinion of the Court, for the Miſdemeanor they were guilty of, in throwing up a Shilling, to prevent their diſagreeing in Opinion.

Laſt Saturday died one Clanes, of the Wounds and Bruiſes he received the Day before from an Ox in Field-lane, and Yeſterday the Coroner's Jury ſate on his Body, and brought in their Verdict Accidental Death.

Laſt Night the Corpſe of the Relict of the late Baron Price, who died laſt Week at her Chambers in Gray's Inn, was carried from thence and interred in the Church of St. Mary Whitechapel.

Laſt Saturday their Graces the Duke and Dutcheſs of Manchester came from their Seat at Kimbolton Caſtle in the County of Huntington, to their Houſe in Groſvenor's Square.

As Thurday next is the Birth-day of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs of WALES, ſo To-morrow is remarkable for the Proclamation of Queen ELIZABETH's Acceſſion to the Crown, upon the Demiſe of her Siſter Queen Mary in the Year 1558; which is the rather mentioned, becauſe 'tis vulgarly miſtaken for that Queen's Birth-day, which was on the 7th of September 1534.

Beware, lest any Men spoil you thro' Philosophy and vain Deceit.

1 Cor. i. 22. — ii. 1, 2.

The Greeks seek after Wisdom —— I came neither with Excellency of Speech or Wisdom; for I determined to know nothing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

Printed for J. Buckland, at the Buck in Pater-noster-Row; and sold by Mrs. Nutt at the Royal-Exchange; and by Mr. Dodd, at the Peacock without Temple-bar.

N. B. In an Advertisement in the Daily Gazetteer, some Person hath pretended to give the Contents of this Pamphlet, but every Reader will plainly see, that it is as false and ridiculous, as it is weak and impertinent, and only becoming those, who, conscious of the Badness of their Cause, have usually avoided a fair Examination, and depended chiefly upon Insults and Misrepresentations.

An infallible and speedy CURE for the HEMORRHOIDS or PILES.

BY a peculiar Specifick Confection which has been found on large and long Trial of its Efficacy and Virtues, to be the most sovereign Remedy that ever was known for this most troublesome Distemper, common to both Sexes, and all Ages; and is a very pleasant Medicine to take, and most agreeable to the Palate of the nicest Ladies, &c. and is therefore for the common Good of Mankind, made publick after this Manner, that all such Persons of either Sex, or any Age, may know where to have present Relief, and in a few Days a perfect Cure, let their Case be ever so bad, or the Piles of any Kind, viz. inward or outward, bleeding or bleeding, or of the worst Sort that ever was known.

This pleasant and delightful Confection, which is compounded with much Labour and Care, of the choicest Ingredients in the whole Art of Physick, infallibly answers the great and good Purpose; for it is so certain in its Effects, that not one in five thousand that take it, miss of a perfect Cure, and so safe in Operation, that the most aged, or even young Infants may take it with the greatest Safety, for it neither purges nor causes the least Disorder to the Patient, but operates gently by Urine, and keeps the Body cool and temperate; but it very powerfully rectifies both the Blood and Juices, takes off the Acridness thereof, which is the true Cause of this Distemper, and destroys it Root and Branch: as the many thousands that have taken it find to their unspeakable Comfort and Satisfaction.

And is sold by the Author's Leave for 3 s. 6 d. each Pot, by Mrs. Richards, at the Sign of the Black Horse in Post-street, near Fleet Bridge; and no where else in England.

The Great Carminative.

A most famous Tincture for the Wind Cholick,

IN what Part soever lodged; for at once taking, and in five Minute's Time, it perfectly cures the severest Gripings in the Guts, and immediately expels the Wind from the Stomach or Bowels (as it were) to a Miracle.

For all wandering Pains in any Part soever, which are to some Persons the Forerunners of a fixed Rheumatism, and even the Gout (mistaken many times under the Notion of Sciatick Ailments) this famous Medicine has not its Fellow, having wrought Wonders in these Cases on great Numbers of People, who, before taking it, could neither sit, stand, nor lie at Ease; but were in intolerable Pain Night and Day, and by taking less than half a Bottle, were absolutely freed from their present Pain, and, by a short Continuance of the Cure, recovered to perfect Health again.

As for any Belchings or Hiccups, proceeding from Wind, or, in short, in any Case of Wind, it may be depended on as the best, safest, most expeditious, and most sovereign Remedy ever yet known.

It is sold only at Mr. King's Picture Shop in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, and at Mr. Marten's Toy-shop, the Sign of the Three Rabbits near Durham-yard, in the Strand, at 3 s. the Bottle.

By the said Mr. King and Mr. Marten is also sold for 3 s. a Bottle.

The Princely beautifying LOTION.

Whose INIMITABLE VIRTUES and TRANSCENDENT EXCELLENCIES have gained it so much Reputation, that envious Imitators endeavour, tho' in vain, to counterfeit it.

It beautifies the Face, Neck, and Hands to the utmost Perfection, and is in the greatest Esteem amongst Ladies, &c. of the first Quality. No Words can sufficiently express its Virtues; for it is not of the Nature of Paint, which puts a false and unnatural Gloss on the Skin; but is a Remedy that, by its Use, really gives a Lustre to the most Beautiful, by opening the fine Features of the Face, and is so safe, not having the least Grain of Mercury in it, that it may be taken inwards, and if smelled to, is really good against Vapours.

It infallibly kill Worms in the Face, takes away Freckles, Spots, Wrinkless Pits, or Marks of the Small-Pox, and effectually cures any Defects in the Face, giving a charming Freshness, Lustre and fine Air to the Features, to Admiration.

As for such Persons as are of a swarthy Complexion, or troubled with any disagreeable Redness, Roughness, Morphew, Heats, or the like, it is not to be paralleled, for it immediately smooths, clears, plumps, nourishes, and whitens the Skin to the last Degree, and makes those Persons who before look'd hagged and old, to look young, beautiful, and fairy like; in short, it far exceeds any thing that was ever yet known or made publick, for clearing and beautifying the Skin.
